

Hello, Mrs. Debbie

There are no words for what you and the others have done for my confidence and my future with our Lord. I've been thinking of all the hard work it takes to run a program like yours, and would love to know more about starting out programs like yours, God centered and full of love. As you well know I love to learn and still am continuing my studies in Christian Basics, Old Testament literature, and Entrepreneurial Economics based on God's word. These courses at Christian Leaders Institute are building me up to first be grounded in truth, and I believe to one-day help others the way your ministry does. I am so thankful for the opportunity that was provided and for the encouragement from others to stick it out no matter what. Right now I am taking a prayer class, which admittedly, at first I thought was dumb, but it has proven me wrong in so many ways! I have never met anybody like Donna, with her faith and her strong prayer life; she has left a big impression on me with prayer. I am so thankful and would love for you to please let the [CWJC volunteers] know how wonderful and beautiful they are for sharing their time and energy with those in need of support. In Jesus name, I pray that blessings rain down from the windows of heaven upon all of your families, and all that you touch prospers 110%!

Gratitude beyond words is the reason for this email! Love that lifts and is patient is what I have learned!

Thank You for everything!
