

MYTHS OF THE UNEMPLOYED

- 1) They are lazy
- 2) They aren't very bright
- 3) They just want hand-outs
- 4) They just don't have what it takes

Working together, we're proving the myths wrong.

We know that our students have untapped abilities and gifts that, once discovered, can be used to open new doors of opportunity.

Together, we've opened eyes, ears, hearts and minds to teach others and give them a hand up – not a hand-out.

We've watched our students blossom as they gain self-confidence to apply for a new job or to find their first one.

Since 2005, we've helped more than 250 adults gain a relationship with Jesus Christ and confidence in themselves so that, with His help, they can have a more fulfilling life.
